Grand Prize

Custom Roy Rogers Ruger Blackhawk

To this day, Roy Rogers continues to be one of the most popular cowboy heroes of all time as he rode the Hollywood range on his magnificent golden stallion, Trigger. This year we are very pleased to offer a unique and highly collectible ROY ROGERS Ruger New Model Blackhawk six-shooter as the Grand Prize in our Sizzling Summer Opportunity Drawing!

Back in the 1980’s and early ‘90’s, Roy “Dusty” Rogers, Jr. formed a company known as Golden Stallion, Inc. Through this company, Dusty offered a series of unique Roy Rogers Ruger revolvers. These six-guns were made in a variety of models and calibers from Single-Six .22’s to Super Blackhawk .44 magnums. They were very attractive limited editions that have become highly collectible today.

The gun we are offering is a Ruger New Model Blackhawk in .38-40 caliber with a barrel length of 5 ¼”. This gun and all the guns offered were finished in an attractive stainless steel with a gold backstrap, triggerguard, trigger, hammer, loading gate, and screws. The ivory grip is scrimshawed with the familiar pose of Roy on a rearing Trigger. Roy’s signature is engraved in gold on the right side of the barrel. His Double R Bar brand is engraved in gold on the lower right side of the frame. This gun is #75 of 75, engraved in gold on the ejector rod housing. This gun is in “like new” condition and does not appear to have ever been fired. A tip of the Stetson to Mr. William Ward for making this gun available to the foundation for the 2014 SIZZLING SUMMER PROJECT.

This gun comes complete with a custom made Alfonso’s of Hollywood authentic 1873 holster and belt. This is a gorgeous outfit, fully carved and two-toned with a chocolate background. It is leather lined for strength and durability and has a nickel California gunfighter clipped buckle. Anyone would be proud to own this genuine replica from the Old West. Also included is a box of 50 rounds of Ten-x .38-40 ammunition.

The Happy Trails Children’s Foundation is very pleased to offer this fine firearm and holster rig for the 2014 SIZZLING SUMMER PROJECT. Order your tickets today!
