A gorgeous Colt Single Action Army .45 caliber, 4 ¾” barrel (never fired) with Happy Trails engraved on the ejector rod housing and Silver Screen Legend IV down the backstrap. This gun has a unique serial number, H2001T for the year that it was originally given away by Happy Trails. Also included is a gorgeous sterling silver mounted hand-carved holster and belt made by Jim Lockwood of Legends in Leather just for this gun. Conrad Anderson of Rock Tree Ranch crafted the magnificent sterling silver and engraved grips along with all the silver buckles and spots on the holster rig and the engraving on the gun. The original winner was the late Tex Hill of Wickenburg, AZ. The foundation was fortunate to reacquire this magnificent collectible gun and holster from the Tex Hill estate. We are pleased to offer it as the Grand Prize in the Sizzling Summer Drawing this year.
Second Prize
